What is Agile Project Management (AgilePM®) Foundation

Agile projects must also be managed. A good approach for this is Agile Project Management (Agile PM), based on DSDM. Agile Project Management is ideally suited for managing projects in which several Scrum teams work together.

DSDM and Agile Project Management focus on a project approach based on 'Enough Design Upfront'. This combines agile flexibility with the need to stay in control and not to introduce unnecessary risks through the Agile way of working.

A selection of topics: philosophy and principles, roles and responsibilities, lifecycle and process, workshops, MoSCoW prioritization, time boxes and iterative development.

Agile Project Management is described in the Agile Project Management Handbook (version 2; this book is part of the training material).

This training includes a voucher for the official, internationally recognized exam.

The costs of the exam voucher are included in the price of the training. Shortly after the start of the training you will receive a voucher with which you can reserve your exam.

Bear in mind that you must plan your exam at least 5 working days in advance.

Who should attend Agile Project Management (AgilePM®) Foundation

The Agile Project Management Foundation® training is intended for anyone who comes into contact with a project in an agile environment.

The training prepares you for the APMG Agile Project Management Foundation exam, which you can book separately. The Agile Project Management Foundation® training lays the foundation for the Agile Project

Management Practitioner follow-up training, which is primarily intended for project managers who execute projects in an agile environment.

If you have knowledge of PRINCE2, we recommend that you follow the PRINCE2 Agile training, instead of the combination of Agile Project Management Foundation and Practitioner.

Prerequisites

There is no entry level for this training.

Objectives

After following the training Agile Project Management Foundation you will know the basic aspects of the DSDM Agile Project Management method.

The Agile Project Management Foundation training prepares you for the APMG Agile Project Management Foundation exam.

The Agile Project Management Foundation training lays the foundation for the subsequent Agile Project Management Practitioner training, which is primarily intended for project managers who execute projects in an Agile environment.

In contrast to the Foundation training, the Practitioner training is aimed at applying the theory from the Foundation training.
