What is Management of Portfolios (MoP®) Practitioner

Management of Portfolios (MoP®) is the standard of Axelos for Portfolio Management. MoP® provides a framework for defining and delivering (change in) portfolios. Have you obtained the Foundation Certificate in Management of Portfolios and knowledge and experience in setting up and/or management of change portfolios? Then you can follow this training with the objective of better application in practice and to prepare for the MoP® Practitioner Exam.

The training Management of Portfolios Practitioner provides participants with an intensive introduction to the methodology and prepares them for the MoP® Practitioner Exam.

Who should attend Management of Portfolios (MoP®) Practitioner

The training Management of Portfolios Practitioner focuses on (portfolio) managers, line managers, consultants or senior staff of a portfolio, program or project office, who want to know more about portfolio management.

Participants are expected to have experience in defining and managing portfolios and in the possession of the Management of Portfolios Foundation certificate. Some knowledge of PRINCE2® and MSP® is advisable.

Prerequisites

Participants are expected to have experience in defining and managing portfolios and are in possession of the Management of Portfolios Foundation certificate. Some knowledge of PRINCE2® and MSP® helps to better understand the guideline.

Objectives

The Management of Portfolios Practitioner training course gives participants an intensive introduction to the methodology and prepares them for the MoP® Practitioner Exam.
