What is Data Protection Officer - DPO

The Data Protection Officer training is an interactive group training in which the experienced trainer challenges you to link the theory to practice together with the other students. As a result, we offer an excellent training for the privacy professional who is looking for an in-depth training to learn to translate privacy legislation into the daily practice of his or her organization.

Based on practical examples, discussions and various cases, you will be challenged to look beyond legislation and regulations and to look for workable solutions in practice. You also learn how to set up an effective privacy organization and privacy framework within your organization.

This DPO training is not standard exam training, but nevertheless forms an excellent preparation for IAPP or PECB exams (CIPP / E, CIPM or CDPO).

Who should attend Data Protection Officer - DPO

This training is suitable for anyone who wants to train for the role of Data Protection Officer, more specifically for:

- (Local) Privacy Officers / Consultants
- Data Protection Officer (DPO)
- Privacy Managers
- Privacy lawyers

Objectives
