What is The People Side

The training The People Side looks at a number of competencies that are important in facilitating good teamwork. We look at ourselves (Lead Yourself) based on our personality and what motivates us. But we also look at how we interact with others. Subjects such as MBTI, Core Qualities, motivation, situational leadership, conflict management, feedback and team building are discussed. Always with a theoretical framework but with a focus on practical application through exercises.

Who should attend The People Side

The training The People Side is aimed at everyone who is managing or supporting teams working in a project or agile environment. For instance project managers, scrum masters and team leads.
