What is Change Management™ Foundation

Do you want to successfully make a change in an organization? Are you looking for tools to help bring about a change in attitude among the staff? Making sense of Change Management is the directive of APMG for guiding change in organizations. Change Management Foundation provides a comprehensive overview of all the models and best practices in the field of change management.

With the Change Management Foundation course you will learn the basic models and principles for implementing change in organizations from the APMG directive Making Sense of Change Management. You learn a broad overview of the various aspects of organizational change and learn the different theories and models related to this topic.

Who should attend Change Management™ Foundation

This course is suitable for anyone working in an organization where a (significant) organizational change is planned or underway. The training is specifically suitable for those who need to give a substantial or controlling contribution to that change.

After this training, you are well prepared to take the APMG exam Change Management Foundation. When you pass the exam you will receive the official APMG certificate.
