What is Recognizing and influencing group behaviour with Insights

This training is all about understanding and appreciating the differences in behavior among individuals. You will learn to make your own interactions more effective and positively influence the behavior of others. The training involves practicing different ways of directing your own behavior in response to others, enabling constructive collaboration. We use Insights to better understand your own behavior and that of the people around you. Insights uses colors to indicate different behavioral patterns. You will experience what these colors mean in practice and how you can deal with situations where different behavioral patterns are at play. Before the training, you will fill in the Insights Explore questionnaire to gain insight into your preferred colors.
