What is Sustainability awareness

Welcome to the 'Sustainability Awareness' training, a journey that will deepen your understanding of sustainability and empower you to become a catalyst for change. This course explores theories and frameworks such as the Sustainable Development Goals, Planetary Boundaries, the Doughnut Model, Carbon Emission Scopes, SBTi and Net Zero, legislation, reporting requirements, and market trends like the movement towards circular economies. Join us as we unravel the mysteries and complexities of sustainability, equipping you with the knowledge to make a meaningful impact in a world that urgently requires it.

Who should attend Sustainability awareness

- Sustainability Officers: Learn to develop and implement sustainability strategies in your organization.
- Sustainability Consultants: Gain insight into the latest sustainability trends and basic, need-to-know frameworks.
- Corporate Social Responsibility Professionals: Understand how sustainability can be integrated into CSR initiatives and how to work with emissions scopes.
- Policy Makers: Learn about the current regulatory landscape and reporting trends related to sustainability.
- Students: Equip yourself with the knowledge of sustainability for a future-proof career.

Prerequisites

No prior knowledge of sustainability is required. An interest in environmental issues and a willingness to contribute to a sustainable future will be beneficial.

Objectives

At the end of the training, you will be able to:

- Understand some of the underlying theories upon which most of our understanding of sustainability in our society is based.
- Foster awareness, knowledge, and actionable strategies within your own organization to create a more sustainable future.
