What is Storytelling

Storytelling is a hot theme. Stories are universal, motivate and create a common image, objective and goal. Our brain is always looking for the story in all the information we get. A visual story creates more impression in our brain than words. The most involved storytellers attract the largest audience.

In this training you will become acquainted with storytelling. You learn the usefulness of stories, what characteristics they have and how to tell a good story. During the training you practice this by creating your own story in 5 steps and telling your story to the group at the end of the day

Who should attend Storytelling

For everyone who wants to inspire and to move people with an authentic story.

Objectives

Learn how to create an authentic story.
